

K-Love serves me as the only available Christian based radio broadcast network, therefore, if this station were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming the thousand of listeners including myself would no longer benefit from the moral support offered by K-Love. I know of many listeners who long for the stations broadcast daily. I believe a great deal of disappointment would discourage many people in my local community.